Love Joy and Responsibility

28th April 2017

Newsletter

I hope you all had a lovely Easter break. We had an exciting couple of days on Tuesday and Wednesday as the governors interviewed two candidates for a new head teacher. It was a wonderful two days - the school was at its best and the children (and adults) demonstrated what a great school we are. Behaviour was impeccable, worship led by both candidates brought tears to my eyes as the children were so thoughtful and spiritual. Both candidates loved the school as they saw brilliant teaching and learning and recognised the outstanding ethos of the school. I was very proud of everyone.

At this stage, all I can communicate to you is that an appointment has been made. Until all the necessary checks are completed and our new Headteacher's school is informed, I know you will understand that I cannot say more than this. As soon as we are in a position to say, Andrew Brown, Chair of Governors, will write a letter to you.

On Thursday the school received an Attitude of Gratitude Award because of the work our Grounds Young Governors are doing to improve our environment through their work reducing litter and recycling. Well done and thank you to Mrs Smith for working hard to achieve this with the children.
