Love Joy and Responsibility

Newsletter

I am sure that all the children are happy to know that Mrs Trunchbull has left the building and Mrs K is back in her office as normal. I am really happy to say that since the visit of Mrs Trunchbull on Wednesday, the cloakrooms are much tidier and hopefully will stay that way.

We are encouraging all children to take responsibility for their belongings. Thankyou to those parents who name possessions.

Some of Year R and 1 visited the church today (before the weather deteriorated too much) and took part in a range of activities to get to know St John's Church better. Thank you to the volunteers who led the different workshops.

Year 3/4 have had a DT week making ballistas and Roman shields and Y5/6 have turned their classrooms into the trenches and re-lived how it was living on the battlefield.

Several parents have asked about the three remaining inset days. These will be taken on Friday, 26 May, Monday 24 July and Tuesday 25th July. The summer term will end on Friday 21 July.
