

It's All Greek to Me!

Here are your home learning activities for our Ancient Greek topic. You need to choose at least 1 activity from the boxes below to complete over the holiday and the next half term.

Your work should be beautifully presented and in your own words, you cannot just copy and paste from the internet. If you think of something different to those that are listed, check with your teacher and you could do that instead! All home learning should be brought into school during the week beginning Monday 21st October to be shared with the class.

Make a Spartan helmet or design a shield.

Make an A-Z of Greece. Think about presenting your work in the best way possible. What could you do on the border? You could add an illustration to each or some of the letters along with small pictures linked to your sentences.

Make a travel brochure about Ancient Greece. Where would you travel to? Where would you stay? What could you do while you were there? Who would you recommend to visit? Use pictures with lots of facts and information.

Design your own Labyrinth. It could be made of straws, string or wood.

Visit a Greek restaurant. Take a camera and ask them if you can take pictures of the food, maybe even as they prepare it. Look at the menu. How it is different to traditional English food? Design your own Greece menu, write a report about your visit, take pictures and label them or make a poster.

Create a picture of an imaginary Greek God. Make sure your poster is eye-catching and full of facts and information. Try to think of a symbol for your God.

Turn a myth into a cartoon, for example, Theseus and the Minotaur. Use lots of speech bubbles.

Write a diary extract from the viewpoint of a family member in Sparta or in Ancient Greece. Try to write about your feelings about daily life.

The Spanish Civil War was fought between 1936 and 1939. Find out information about what happened at that time. Include images and information that you can find out about what happened.

The Taj Mahal is one of the 7 Wonders of the World. Find out more about the Taj Mahal; why was it built? Who built it and when?

Add pictures with labels of parts of the building. You could even look at some of the patterns used around the Taj Mahal. Present your learning in an interesting way.

Find some Spanish Salsa music on the Internet and practise some Salsa dancing. You could video yourself and some friends doing your routine. Find out what certain dance moves mean and try to tell a story with your dance.

If you think of another piece of homelearning you would really like to do, Please add it here:

What does Spain import and export? Find out using books and the internet. Use a map of Spain and colour in different areas where the different crops comes from. Can you write a story or report about how food from Spain gets from the field to our dinner tables? Maybe you could look in the supermarket for foods that come from Spain and include these in your report.
